Knollwood Baptist Church—Winston-Salem, N.C.

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless; to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes; to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

THE OPENING SENTENCE Lucrecia Norman

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

“Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us”arr. Lloyd Larson

*Have mercy on me, have mercy on me,
My soul will take refuge, oh Lord, my God, in thee.
Have mercy on me, have mercy on me,
And until the storm is over keep me safe, Lord, in the shadow of your wings.*

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison) Bob Setzer, Jr.

God, we come with hesitant steps and uncertain motives to sweep out the corners where sin has accumulated, and uncover the ways we have strayed from your truth. Expose the empty and barren places where we don’t allow you to enter. Reveal our half-hearted struggles where we have been indifferent to the suffering of others.

Nurture the faint stirrings of new life, where your Spirit has begun to grow. Let your healing light transform us into the image of your Son. For you alone can bring new life and make us whole. ~Christine Sine

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Appreciation is expressed to Knollwood member Patricia Guy for sharing her musical gifts this morning.

Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Judy Felty on our anniversary by Bubber Felty, Chris Felty, and Christopher Felty.

The flowers in the narthex are given to the glory of God and in memory of her mother and father, Ruth and Mack Summey, and in honor of her stepmother, Wylene Summey, by Margo Jarrett.

The red rose on the altar is to announce the birth of a daughter, Eleanor James Southern, to Jamie and Ed Southern.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

According to the Gospels, Jesus spent 40 days in the wilderness of Judea wrestling with the kind of Messiah he would be. There, Jesus renounced the seductions of power, success, and status to follow in the way of suffering love. He must have realized early on, that his path would lead to a confrontation with the civil and religious authorities. Nonetheless, Jesus "set his face to go to Jerusalem" (Luke 9:51), even if that meant--as ultimately it did--he would face death on a cross. The banners portray Jesus in the wilderness, contemplating the road ahead. They will remain up throughout Lent, a 40-day period of preparation for the celebration of Easter. The artist is Knollwood's own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children's Worship resumes this month for 1st through 3rd graders. It meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month. During the Hymn of Devotion, children meet their leaders in the narthex to walk together to Children's Worship (B244). After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. Volunteers are needed to help chaperone the children during that time. If you are interested in volunteering one Sunday, please contact Judith Kuhn, judithkuhn44@gmail.com.

For the 2nd and 4th Sundays children are invited to enjoy the worship service with their families. Children's activity bulletins and crayons are available in the narthex.

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL ELECTIVE AND BOOK DISCUSSION

February 21, 28 & March 6, 9:45-10:45 with Diane Lipsett

Not in God's Name: Confronting Religious Violence, by Jonathan Sacks

This three-part SS elective will explore the challenge of contemporary religious violence within and toward Christianity, Islam, and Judaism. Rabbi Jonathan Sacks' new book, published just last October, prompts understanding of religious extremism together with investigation of how faith communities may (and must) address religious violence. Books will be available for purchase and reading, but discussions will include all who attend, whether or not you've read. To allow for good planning, sign up by contacting the church office, 725-1343/frontdesk@knollwood.org.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS AT KNOLLWOOD

OPTION ONE: Rooted in God's Movement: Spiritual Practices for Lent

Five Wednesdays from February 17 – March 16

This participatory small group experience will bridge religion and spirituality to deepen our participation in Jesus' story. Each week, we will access the Bible, experience, and collective reflection to root ourselves in God's presence through ancient prayer practices, including: breath prayer, guided meditation, centering prayer, lectio divina, embodied prayers, prayer of the Examen, Yahweh/Jesus prayer and more. Knollwood intern and WFU Divinity student Jesse Sorrell, who has rich experience guiding reflective and meditative practices, will lead the group. Sign up by contacting the church office. 725-1343/frontdesk@knollwood.org.

OPTION TWO: A Straight Look at Bias: Stretching our Capacity for Welcome

Two Wednesdays, February 17 & 24

This lively, challenging group will explore how our views of others include recognition of race, gender, disability and other social identifiers. Our explicit statements of welcome, openness, and acceptance can be true and valid yet still complicated by our implicit assumptions. Let's hold up clear mirrors and have straight conversations about our own implicit biases and their consequences for church life. Participants will take (in advance) some brief on-line tests of implicit assumptions (<https://implicit.harvard.edu/implicit/education.html>, more details available when you sign up). Led by WFU Professor Bill Davis with Salem College student Kelli Powers. Sign up by contacting the church office. 725-1343/frontdesk@knollwood.org.

OPTION THREE: Astonished: Encountering Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount

Feb 24 - Dancing on the edge of the possible

March 2 - Reading Jesus with Ghandi

March 16 - Seeing God? The optics of righteousness

A Lenten Bible study of Matthew 5-7 and its continuing power to astonish, led by Diane Lipsett and friends. All are welcome. No sign-up required.

ALSO – Brown Bag Consultations: A Free and Private Evaluation of Medications
Wednesdays, by appointment, Feb. 24 or March 9, 5 – 6 p.m.

Worried about medication that's been in your cabinet for years? Wondering about side effects or drug interactions? On these Wednesdays during the dinner hour, you may bring all your medications (both prescription and over-the-counter) in a brown bag and have a pharmacist check them out. Offered by Knollwood member and pharmacist Christine Ebert as part of the church's commitment to health and personal education. Call or email for a 15 minute appointment, 725-1343/frontdesk@knollwood.org.

Wednesday, March 9 – Intergenerational Mission Project - Books, Literacy, and Support for Children's Reading – We'll celebrate our own love of reading and our church members' involvement in tutoring programs. We'll face hard facts about literacy in our community. Then we'll roll up our sleeves and work on increasing book resources for the children of Winston-Salem.
