

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

Sunday, February 28, 2016
10:55 a.m.

www.knollwood.org

Knollwood Baptist Church—Winston-Salem, N.C.

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless;
to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes; to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

THE OPENING SENTENCE Kenneth A. Wilson

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

“Pièce en Forme Canonique”..... Théodore Dubois

Anna Morris, oboe; Evan Richey, cello; Lauren Winkelman, piano

THE CALL TO WORSHIP Kenneth A. Wilson

One: Hear this, every one who thirsts, come to the waters!

All: Wonderful God, you are our God, early will we seek you. Our spirits thirst for you, our minds long for you because your love is better than life itself, our lips will sing your praise!

~adapted from Isaiah 55

THE INVOCATION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER Kenneth A. Wilson

*THE HYMN OF PRAISE, NO. 669

“God of Grace and God of Glory”..... CWM RHONDDA

CONFESSING OUR NEED FOR FORGIVENESS

THE CHORAL CALL TO CONFESSION

“To Dust” Karen Marrolli

The Chancel Choir

Let my crying come to dust. Let my grief be turned to ashes.

Let my heart be cleansed with flame. Kyrie eleison.

Let my mourning turn to song. Let my sorrow turn to sunrise.

Let my broken spirit rest. Kyrie eleison.

Let your healing waters rise. Let your deserts bloom with bounty.

Let your spirit come. Christe eleison.

Let our crying come to dust. Let our grief be turned to ashes.

Let our hearts be cleansed with flame. Kyrie eleison.

~Karen Marrolli

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison) Diane Lipsett

Loving and merciful One, we thank you for the community in which you have placed us, for the brothers and sisters with whom we walk this pilgrim journey. Yet, we confess that we fail to love as you love. We push aside those whom we believe are the least in your Kingdom. We fail to see your Kingdom in the faces and hearts of those we meet. Form in us a new vision of community in which there is neither East nor West, neither South nor North. We pray for the sake of your Kingdom that both is and is not yet.

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

THE SILENT CONFESSION

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

LISTENING FOR GOD’S WORD

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON: Habakkuk 3:2, 17-19a..... Lucrecia Norman

One: This is the word of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON: 1 Corinthians 10:1-6, 12-13..... Tom Gale

One: This is the word of God.

Deacon of the Week

All: Thanks be to God.

THE CHILDREN’S TIME..... Lucrecia Norman

*THE GOSPEL LESSON: Luke 13:1-9..... Diane Lipsett

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE..... Bob Setzer, Jr.

THE ANTHEM

“Yet I Will Rejoice in the Lord” James Biery

The Chancel Choir; Anna Morris, oboe; Evan Richey, cello

Though the fig tree do not blossom, and there be no fruit on the vines; though the produce of the olive fail and the fields yields no food; though the flock be cut off from the fold and there be no herd in the stalls; yet I will rejoice, in the Lord. I will joy in the God of my salvation. God, the Lord, is my strength; his glory covers the heavens, and the earth is full of his praise.

THE SERMON Bob Setzer, Jr.

KEN WILSON DAY

Today is “Ken Wilson Day” at Knollwood Baptist Church as we celebrate Ken’s 30 years of Ken’s faithful ministry in this community of faith. There will be a brief recognition in today’s service and a reception from 2:30 - 4:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. At 3:30 p.m., a short program is planned to give thanks for Ken’s many contributions in his ministry among us.

TO OUR GUESTS

We extend to you a sincere welcome and the hope that you will find your worship experience meaningful. You are invited to the narthex for a brief time of fellowship following worship where you can meet church members and clergy, and learn more about this congregation. We would ask that you record your visit by filling out the friendship pad in the pew; email addresses are especially helpful. To learn more about Knollwood Baptist Church, find us online at www.knollwood.org. You can also receive our newsletter and email announcements by emailing colleen@knollwood.org, or just call the church office, 725-1343. Sunday School at Knollwood begins at 9:45 a.m.

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Appreciation is expressed to guest musicians Anna Morris, oboe, and Evan Richey, cello, for playing in worship this morning. Originally from Nashville, Tennessee, oboist Anna Morris moved to Winston-Salem in 2000 to attend the University of North Carolina School of the Arts. Currently, Anna is the principal oboist of the Western Piedmont Symphony in Hickory, NC and works at Atlantic Capital Advisors, LLC as a CPA. Evan Richey, a graduate of UNCSCA and The Juilliard School, is on the music faculty at Wake Forest University and performs with the Greensboro Symphony and the Carolina Chamber Symphony Players. He is also the owner of Ovation Sound, a recording studio in Winston-Salem, where he is recognized nationally as a producer, composer, and sound designer for multi-media applications.

The prayer of confession is a product of the Baylor University Christian Reflection Project and is used by permission.

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in celebration and honor of Ken and Cathy Wilson's ministry to Knollwood for the past 30 years.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

According to the Gospels, Jesus spent 40 days in the wilderness of Judea wrestling with the kind of Messiah he would be. There, Jesus renounced the seductions of power, success, and status to follow in the way of suffering love. He must have realized early on, that his path would lead to a confrontation with the civil and religious authorities. Nonetheless, Jesus "set his face to go to Jerusalem" (Luke 9:51), even if that meant--as ultimately it did--he would face death on a cross. The banners portray Jesus in the wilderness, contemplating the road ahead. They will remain up throughout Lent, a 40-day period of preparation for the celebration of Easter. The artist is Knollwood's own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children's Worship resumes this month for 1st through 3rd graders. It meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month. During the Hymn of Devotion, children meet their leaders in the narthex to walk together to Children's Worship (B244). After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. Volunteers are needed to help chaperone the children during that time. If you are interested in volunteering one Sunday, please contact Judith Kuhn, judithkuhn44@gmail.com.

For the 2nd and 4th Sundays children are invited to enjoy the worship service with their families. Children's activity bulletins and crayons are available in the narthex.

SEARCH FOR CHILDREN'S MINISTRY ASSOCIATE

The Personnel Committee is looking for the person gifted and called to serve as our next Children's Ministry Associate. The Children's Ministry Associate is a vital part of Knollwood's teaching and caring Ministry to children and families. This is a 20 hours per week part-time position. More information can be found online: www.knollwood.org/resources/kbc-documents Application deadline: March 1.

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL ELECTIVE AND BOOK DISCUSSION

February 28 & March 6, 9:45-10:45 with Diane Lipsett

Not in God's Name: Confronting Religious Violence, by Jonathan Sacks

This three-part SS elective will explore the challenge of contemporary religious violence within and toward Christianity, Islam, and Judaism. Rabbi Jonathan Sacks' new book, published just last October, prompts understanding of religious extremism together with investigation of how faith communities may (and must) address religious violence. Books will be available for purchase and reading, but discussions will include all who attend, whether or not you've read. To allow for good planning, sign up by contacting the church office, 725-1343/frontdesk@knollwood.org.

WOMEN'S RETREAT 2016 - FRIDAY, MARCH 11 - SUNDAY, MARCH 13

Retreat Leader: Rebecca Husband Maynard at the Catholic Conference Center in Hickory.

Registration forms are available in the narthex and online at www.knollwood.org under the Community tab. You may drop off your completed registration form in the box in the narthex, or send it to the church office. Questions? Contact kbcwomensretreat@gmail.com.

BLAST TO OUR PAST FOR OUR CHILDREN'S FUTURE

Saturday, March 5 from 6-9:00 p.m.

Please join us for an 80 's Mixer and Auction benefiting Knollwood's Through-the-Week School at the Womble Carlyle Club at BB&T Ballpark, 951 Ball Park Way, Winston-Salem.

Cash Bar, 80's attire optional, grandparents, alumni and friends welcome.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS AT KNOLLWOOD

OPTION ONE: Rooted in God's Movement: Spiritual Practices for Lent

Five Wednesdays from February 17 – March 16

This participatory small group experience will bridge religion and spirituality to deepen our participation in Jesus' story. Each week, we will access the Bible, experience, and collective reflection to root ourselves in God's presence through ancient prayer practices, including: breath prayer, guided meditation, centering prayer, lectio divina, embodied prayers, prayer of the Examen, Yahweh/Jesus prayer and more. Knollwood intern and WFU Divinity student Jesse Sorrell, who has rich experience guiding reflective and meditative practices, will lead the group

OPTION TWO: Astonished: Encountering Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount

March 2 - Reading Jesus with Ghandi

March 16 - Seeing God? The optics of righteousness

A Lenten Bible study of Matthew 5-7 and its continuing power to astonish, led by Diane Lipsett. All are welcome. No sign-up required.

ALSO – Brown Bag Consultations: A Free and Private Evaluation of Medications Wednesdays, by appointment, March 9, 5 – 6 p.m.

Worried about medication that's been in your cabinet for years? Wondering about side effects or drug interactions? On these Wednesdays during the dinner hour, you may bring all your medications (both prescription and over-the-counter) in a brown bag and have a pharmacist check them out. Offered by Knollwood member and pharmacist Christine Ebert as part of the church's commitment to health and personal education. Call or email for a 15 minute appointment, 725-1343/frontdesk@knollwood.org.

Wednesday, March 9 – Intergenerational Mission Project - Books, Literacy, and Support for Children's Reading – We'll celebrate our own love of reading and our church members' involvement in tutoring programs. We'll face hard facts about literacy in our community. Then we'll roll up our sleeves and work on increasing book resources for the children of Winston-Salem.
