

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Sunday, March 6, 2016

10:55 a.m.

www.knollwood.org

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless; to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes; to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves "as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship."

THE OPENING SENTENCE Lucrecia Norman

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

*"I Love You, Lord" arr. Kevin McChesney
Middle School Bells; David Winkelman, Director*

THE CHORAL INTROIT

*"Cantate Domino" Giuseppe Pitoni
The Youth Choir*

Sing to the Lord a new song, praise Him in the sanctuary of holiness. Let Israel rejoice in that which He has made, and the children of Zion exult in their Ruler.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP Lucrecia Norman

One: Come now to worship our mighty God,

All: Who is pleased to give us the kingdom.

One: Come now to praise our loving Good Shepherd,

All: Who is pleased to call us His little flock.

One: May our worship today help us to live out our calling and God's command

All: To invest in eternal treasures, not temporary ones

One: To share, not hoard, the passing wealth of this life

All: So we might store up heavenly treasures that will not fail,

One: For where our treasure is, there will our hearts be also.

All: Now may our worship and our hearts be treasures to You, O God.

~Mary Hix, from Luke 12:32-34

THE INVOCATION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER Lucrecia Norman

PARENT-CHILD DEDICATION

Andrew Erwin Wells and Peter Joseph Wells

Presented by Don and Rebecca Wells, parents

THE LITANY OF DEDICATION Bob Setzer, Jr.

One: We are here to present Andrew and Peter to the church and to dedicate them to God. As a community of faith, we pledge to join with Don and Rebecca in their commitment to guide Andrew and Peter in their spiritual lives. As Andrew and Peter grow in our congregation, how will we show them that they are children of God?

All: We will love them and include them fully in the life of this congregation.

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

One: As Andrew and Peter grow into adulthood, how will we pass on our heritage of faith to them?

All: We will tell them the stories of our faith. We will tell them about Abraham and Sarah, about Moses, Ruth, and the prophets. We will tell them about Jesus, the woman at the well, and the apostles. We will seek to reflect the love of God through Christ Jesus in our own lives and through the mission of our church.

One: Members of Knollwood, what do we hope for Andrew and Peter?

All: We will look to the day when they will sit with us at the Lord's table, declare faith in Jesus Christ, and follow him in love and longing.

One: Don and Rebecca, do you, as parents, assume your primary responsibility in guiding Child towards a life of faith and the identity of a Christian disciple?

Parents: Yes, we joyfully accept this sacred duty.

One: Do you, the members of Knollwood, pledge to love, nurture and support Andrew and Peter and all the children God entrusts to our care?

All: Yes, we do, for these beloved children belong to us as well.

One: Then may God be with us and help us.

All: And may God bless Andrew and Peter, this day and forevermore. Amen.

The Blessing and Prayer of Dedication

CONFESSING OUR NEED FOR FORGIVENESS

THE CALL TO CONFESSION Lucrecia Norman

THE SILENT CONFESSION

Loving God, we know that we are only passing through this world. But we confess that this world's glittering beauty and its dangerous uncertainty sometimes compel us to use money more to please and protect ourselves than to love You and serve others. Strip away the false but hypnotizing illusion that wealth can buy meaning and joy and the lie that money can circumvent sorrow or tragedy. Give us the desire today and the determination tomorrow to be fools who are rich toward You – fools who store up heavenly treasures – treasures that cannot be seen, treasures that cannot be counted, but treasures that will never fail in this world or the world to come. Now give us hearts to be fools who do Your will, O God. ~Mary Hix

“Bigger Barns”..... ST. GEORGE’S WINDSOR

During the last stanza, children who are in first grade through third grade are invited to meet the Children’s Worship leaders in the narthex.

“Big - ger barns are what I need,” so a rich man said one day.
 “Big - ger barns are what we need for our mon - ey, gad - gets, more!”
 5 God of love, we long to know what will make us tru - ly blest.

“From my wor - ries I’ll befree when my wealth is stored a - way.”
 Lord, we’re temp - ted to believe hav - ing wealth, we’ll be se - cure!
 9 Je - sus taught us long a-go wealth won’t give us peace or rest.

“Fool!” God said, “To - day you’ll die!” Will that wealth mean an - y - thing?
 Some - where chil - dren cry for food or to have a doc - tor’s care.
 13 You are our se - cu - ri - ty! Safe in you, we serve, O Lord.

All life’s bles - sings real - ly lie in the gifts that wealth can’t bring.
 Can our big - ger barns begood when poor neigh - bors know des - pair?
 May we find we’re rich indeed when we’re shar - ing with the poor.

THE ANTHEM

“Pietà”..... Joseph M. Martin

The Youth Choir; Patricia Hughes Ball, flute
*In the shadow of a manger, by a candle’s dancing flame,
 Tender Mary holds her baby, and she breathes His holy name.
 “Jesus rest your weary head, close your weeping eyes.”
 As evening falls, she starts to sing a lullaby.
 “Lulay, lulay, peace be yours tonight.”*

*In the shadow of the temple, in a place so far from home,
 Mary sees her child of wonder, and she marvels how He’s grown.
 “Jesus rest your weary head and think on gentle things.”
 With loving arms she holds her Savior and she sings,
 “Lulay, lulay, peace be yours tonight.”*

*In the shadow of Golgotha, underneath a darkened sky,
 Mary gently cradles Jesus. Through her tears she says goodbye.
 “Jesus rest your weary head. Your work on earth is done.”
 And as the darkness falls, she whispers to her son, “Lulay, lulay, peace be yours tonight. Peace be yours tonight.”*

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

This morning’s Call to Worship and Prayer of Confession were composed by Knollwood member Mary Hix. Appreciation is also expressed to Patricia Hughes Ball for sharing her musical gifts this morning.

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you.

Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Kaye Elizabeth Marshall by Shirley Noffsinger and family.

The flowers in the narthex are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Sue Beck by her husband, Gene Beck, and their children, Donna, Anna, Carl & Mary and families.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

According to the Gospels, Jesus spent 40 days in the wilderness of Judea wrestling with the kind of Messiah he would be. There, Jesus renounced the seductions of power, success, and status to follow in the way of suffering love. He must have realized early on, that his path would lead to a confrontation with the civil and religious authorities. Nonetheless, Jesus “set his face to go to Jerusalem” (Luke 9:51), even if that meant--as ultimately it did--he would face death on a cross. The banners portray Jesus in the wilderness, contemplating the road ahead. They will remain up throughout Lent, a 40-day period of preparation for the celebration of Easter. The artist is Knollwood’s own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN
