

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Sunday, May 15, 2016

10:55 a.m.

www.knollwood.org

Knollwood Baptist Church—Winston-Salem, N.C.

To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts; to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless; to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes; to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

THE OPENING SENTENCE Lucrecia Norman

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

“Canon in D Major” Johann Pachelbel
Guitar Ensemble; William Kossler, Director

THE CHORAL INTROIT

“Breathe on Me, Breath of God” TRENTHAM

The Chancel Choir

[Text may be followed at No. 295 in the hymnal.]

THE CALL TO WORSHIP Lucrecia Norman

One: On this day of Pentecost, we remember and celebrate the coming of Holy Spirit

All: Which came with a roaring sound and filled the entire house where the disciples were.

One: All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit,

All: And they began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them ability. But their common language was love.

Spanish: And they began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them ability. But their common language was love.

Greek: And they began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them ability. But their common language was love.

Indonesian: And they began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them ability. But their common language was love.

Swahili: And they began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them ability. But their common language was love.

One: Now may the Spirit fill us here today also

All: So we may speak God’s language of love for the whole world to hear.

~Mary Hix

THE INVOCATION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER Lucrecia Norman

*THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN OF PRAISE, NO. 720

“Christ, Whose Purpose Is to Kindle” ODE TO JOY

LISTENING FOR GOD’S WORD

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON: Genesis 11:1-9.....Daniel Potter

One: This is the word of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON: Acts 2:1-13 Ben Heinsohn
One: This is the word of God. Deacon of the Week
All: Thanks be to God.

THE ANTHEM FOR PENTECOST
“If Ye Love Me, Keep My Commandments”..... Thomas Tallis
The Chancel Choir; David Winkelman, conducting
If ye love me, keep my commandments and I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another comforter, that he may abide with you for ever, ev’n the spirit of truth.

*THE GOSPEL LESSON: John 14:15-17, 25-27Palmer Francis
One: This is the Gospel of Christ.
All: Thanks be to God.

*THE HYMN OF DEVOTION, NO. 290
“Spirit of God, Descend upon My Heart”..... MORECAMBE
During the last stanza, children who are in first grade through third grade are invited to meet the Children’s Worship leaders in the narthex.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE..... Diane Lipsett

THE SERMON Bob Setzer, Jr.
THE LANGUAGE THE SPIRIT SPEAKS IS LOVE

THE CELEBRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION Bob Setzer, Jr.
The Sursum Corda
One: The Lord be with you.
All: And also with you.
One: Lift up your hearts!
All: We lift them to the Lord.
One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right to give our thanks and praise!

The Prayer of Confession
Mighty God, we confess that we don’t like to give up our control or power. We sometimes find it easier to worship with our rational minds than with our emotional hearts. The wildness of the Holy Spirit bewilders us. Help us to loosen our need for control, so we might experience the unifying power of Your Spirit. Help us to open our hearts to Your Spirit so we may speak Your language of love.
~Mary Hix

The Words of Institution

Sharing the Bread and the Cup
The Bread
“Draw Us in the Spirit’s Tether” Harold Friedell
The Chancel Choir
*Draw us in the Spirit’s tether; for when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together, thou art in the midst of them:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Touch we now thy garment’s hem.*
*As God’s people join together in the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father break the bread and bless the cup,
Alleluia! So thou knit our friendship up.*
*All our meals and all our living make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving, we may true disciples be.
Alleluia! We will serve thee faithfully, we serve thee faithfully.*

The Cup

“Like the Murmur of the Dove’s Song”arr. John Carter
Lauren Winkelman, organ

RESPONDING IN FAITH

THE INVITATION TO CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

If you desire membership in this congregation, you are invited to come forward and the pastor will greet you. If you prefer not to come forward, you may speak to one of the ministers after the service. As an open membership church, we honor your previous baptism in any other Christian community. If you have not made a confession of faith, we invite you to do so and receive Christian baptism. Church members are invited to commit themselves anew to God and to God’s service in the world.

TO OUR GUESTS

We extend to you a sincere welcome and the hope that you will find your worship experience meaningful. You are invited to the narthex for a brief time of fellowship following worship where you can meet church members and clergy, and learn more about this congregation. We would ask that you record your visit by filling out the friendship pad in the pew; email addresses are especially helpful. To learn more about Knollwood Baptist Church, find us online at www.knollwood.org. You can also receive our newsletter and email announcements by emailing colleen@knollwood.org, or just call the church office, 725-1343. Sunday School at Knollwood begins at 9:45 a.m.

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

We welcome an ensemble of classical guitars this morning to play the prelude and the first hymn. The group is made up of a combination of guitar students of Bill Kossler and Marty Edwards, teachers in the Knollwood music program. This Suzuki-based guitar program offers instruction for children ages 3 through high school. More information is available at www.knollwood.org.

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given with love and gratitude to the glory of God and in celebration of Eloise Hardy on her second birthday.

BENEVOLENCE OFFERING

On Communion Sunday, a benevolence offering is taken to help with benevolent needs in the Knollwood family and wider community. Ushers will be in the narthex following worship to receive donations.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

In the Bible and in church tradition, the dove and fire symbolize the Holy Spirit. According to the four Gospels, the Spirit descended on Jesus like a dove at his baptism (Mark 1:10 and parallels). John the Baptist promised the Messiah would baptize with the Holy Spirit “and with fire” (Matthew 3:11; Luke 3:16). From Moses’ encounter with God by the burning bush (Exodus 3:1-6) to the tongues of fire at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-4), fire is a sign of God’s riveting, transforming presence. The Pentecost banner depicts the fire of God’s challenge and the dove of God’s gentle loving care. The artist who designed and painted the Pentecost banner is our own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children’s Worship for 1st through 3rd graders meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month. During the Hymn of Devotion, children meet their leaders in the narthex to walk together to Children’s Worship (B244). After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. Volunteers are needed to help chaperone the children during that time. If you are interested in volunteering one Sunday, please contact Judith Kuhn, judithkuhn44@gmail.com.

For the 2nd and 4th Sundays children are invited to enjoy the worship service with their families. Children’s activity bulletins and crayons are available in the narthex.

THANKS BE TO GOD: A CELEBRATION OF KNOLLWOOD GENEROSITY

We give thanks for the $1,037,628 in financial commitments already received to support the life and work of our church.

As we continue to pledge as much as possible of our $1,408,250, 2016 ministry plan, we invite those who have not yet made a commitment to do so. Commitment cards are available from the church office and online here <http://knollwood.org/resources/giving-online>, or one can simply email one’s 2016 commitment to our financial administrator, Peggy Koonts, Peggy@knollwood.org.

Thank you for this expression of your faith and discipleship and for this investment in keeping Knollwood’s ministry and mission vital and strong.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS AT KNOLLWOOD

May 18 – Celebrate Music

The Knollwood children’s choirs will present an end-of-year program. Hymns and anthems will be sung by the Concord Choir (4s-5s), the Carol Choir (1st-2nd grades), and the Chapel Choir (3rd-5th grades). Those Chapel Choir boys and girls who have memorized 20 hymns will receive their Hymns-for-a-Lifetime Award.

May 25 – Celebrate Community

A celebratory meal (no charge) with BBQ by local award-winning smoke chef Johnny Young, vegetarian and other dishes by our special events team, plus desserts galore. We’ll have musical games and dancing for all ages with DJ Jay Mikush. Come celebrate the end of a good year of Wednesday night learning, doing, and connecting.

ORDINATION OF RACHEL REVELLE

Rachel Revelle, a Knollwood member, former ministry intern, and soon-to-be Wake Divinity School graduate has completed the process for ordination to the ministry through Knollwood Baptist Church. Her mentoring committee was comprised of Bob Setzer, Jr., Diane Lipsett, Ted Dougherty, Janet Ray, Dean Clifford, and Roger Underwood. On Sunday evening, May 1, Rachel met with an Ordination Council that recommended the church proceed with her ordination. Pending a vote of the Diaconate tonight, Rachel's ordination service will be Sunday, May 22 at 2 p.m. at Knollwood.

WELCOMING A FAMILY FROM SYRIA--THEY HAVE ARRIVED!

In partnership with non-profit World Relief, a Knollwood Good Neighbor Team has now welcomed a family from Syria (coming by way of Jordan). The lively, warm family of seven arrived on May 12 and settled into a home furnished and supplied by Knollwood members and friends. Thanks to all who have helped so far. Pray for this family in their next transitions. Pray that Winston-Salem will welcome them with kindness and respect. Pray for the Good Neighbor Team as we move into a next phase of appropriate support. Questions may be directed to Dean Clifford, who leads the team (cliffordconsult@mindspring.com), or Diane Lipsett as ministerial liaison (diane@knollwood.org).

GRADUATE'S NAMES REQUESTED

If a member of your family is graduating from high school, college, graduate school, etc., please e-mail colleen@knollwood.org with graduate's name, school, and degree by May 20. A listing of this spring's graduates will be printed in the June newsletter.

MAY MISSIONS OFFERING

This month you received a letter describing the recipients of our annual May Missions Offering: Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of NC, Baptist Children's Homes of NC, The Baptist Hospital Benevolence Fund and Baptist Retirement Homes of NC. If you have not received this information, there are extra cover letters and envelopes on the credenza in the narthex. This offering will be collected through June 30.

SUNDAY, MAY 22, FESTIVAL FOR TRINITY SUNDAY

On Sunday evening, May 22, at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary, the Knollwood Chancel Choir will be joined by the Chancel Choir, First Baptist Greensboro, plus singers from the North Carolina A&T choir for an evening of choral and congregational music celebrating Trinity Sunday.

The festival will be led by the exciting, dynamic, and energizing young conductor Maestro Travis Alexander, the choral director at N.C. A&T University. In addition to the anthems of the season (including music from Messiah, Dan Forrest, Paul Tschesnokoff, Mark Miller), Maestro Alexander will lead the choirs in music from the black gospel tradition. He will also play solo piano selections.

The festival will be presented that morning at FBC Greensboro at 10:30. Also that morning, the FBC Greensboro Youth Choir will travel to KBC to join our youth choir for worship leadership at Knollwood.

WRITING AS A SPIRITUAL PRACTICE RETREAT - JULY 29-31, 2016

Interest grows and sign-ups are increasing for this Knollwood summer retreat for aspiring or experienced writers. Maureen Ryan Griffin will lead the retreat. She is a published author and experienced teacher of the craft of writing. The retreat will be held at Summit Retreat Center at Haw River State Park north of Greensboro. By mid-May, you may request a brochure with the schedule and more information.

Friends are welcome, costs will be reasonable, and need-based scholarships are available. Email diane@knollwood.org to request a brochure. Space will be limited, so please contact the church office to express your interest and reserve a spot, 336-725-1343 or frontdesk@knollwood.org.

May 19 A Tender Struggle by Krista Bremer

For more information, or to let the leaders know you plan to come, contact Jamie Southern, jamie.rogers@gmail.com or Rachel Stinehelfer, ledalucy21@yahoo.com.

PRAYER PATCH MINISTRY

The Sew and So's of KBC offer a prayer patch ministry for our church members, their families and friends. A basket of patches is available on the table in the narthex. Our prayer is that our hand-made patch will provide comfort and support from your church family and a reminder of the peace and hope of God's love.

Joanne Buckner shared her experience (and that of others) in sharing the prayer patches members of the Sew and So's made for the Medical Mission Team to distribute to those they served in Peru. Attached to each patch was a message in Spanish acknowledging our spiritual connection. "The people were very happy to receive the prayer patches and the message and understood we are brothers and sisters in Christ."

WEDNESDAY MORNING WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Philippians is the focus of a new spring study for this thriving group, gathering early Wednesday mornings, 7:30-9:00 a.m. Diane Lipsett and others lead discussion. Richard Vinson has written a Philippians study guide just for this group (though other groups may want to use it also). For information, please contact Rachel Wiggins (rdwiggins@triad.rr.com) or Diana Long (dlong1221@aol.com).
