Knollwood Baptist Church—Winston-Salem, N.C.

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless;
to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes;
to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves "as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship."

THE OPENING SENTENCE Kenneth A. Wilson

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

"When Morning Gilds the Skies" Dale Wood
Henry Tysinger, organ

THE CALL TO WORSHIP Kenneth A. Wilson

One: We come from days hot and muggy

All: Seeking the cool of sanctuary.

One: We come from a world grown loud with anger

All: Seeking the quiet of sanctuary.

One: We come from days filled with to do lists that never quite get done

All: Seeking the stillness of sanctuary.

One: We come from nights filled with fears too familiar and terror too new

All: Seeking the peace of sanctuary.

One: We gather to worship, to give thanks, to listen for the whisper of God's Spirit.

All: May our worship open our hearts, deepen our faith and renew our resolve to live as God's children in this world and for this world.

~Peggy Haymes

THE INVOCATION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER Kenneth A. Wilson

CONFESSING OUR NEED FOR FORGIVENESS

THE CALL TO CONFESSION Lucrecia Norman

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison) Lucrecia Norman

God, we are like the children with the perpetual report card: "Not living up to our potential." You have called us to be light but we reach for the dimmer switch. You have called us to be salt but we hold back lest someone think us too salty.

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

God, sometimes our sin is sheer disobedience freely chosen. Sometimes it is driven by fear. Sometimes it is the laziness of doing the easy thing. But often our greatest sin is not trusting in Your love for us.

You know us better than we know ourselves, and yet You love us to our bones. Forgive us, God, and open our hearts to be washed in Your love.

~Peggy Haymes

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in memory of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Weiler, Jr. by their grandchildren: Shannon Ware and Christopher Weiler; and by Elizabeth and Harry Weiler.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

In the Bible and in church tradition, the dove and fire symbolize the Holy Spirit. According to the four Gospels, the Spirit descended on Jesus like a dove at his baptism (Mark 1:10 and parallels). John the Baptist promised the Messiah would baptize with the Holy Spirit "and with fire" (Matthew 3:11; Luke 3:16). From Moses' encounter with God by the burning bush (Exodus 3:1-6) to the tongues of fire at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-4), fire is a sign of God's riveting, transforming presence. The Pentecost banner depicts the fire of God's challenge and the dove of God's gentle loving care. The artist who designed and painted the Pentecost banner is our own Bambi Setzer.

On Tuesday nights during the school year, the KBC volunteers help with homework assignments of approximately 40, primarily Hispanic, students who range from kindergarten to high school. Spanish is not a requirement for the volunteers. All of the homework is in English and you can generally select what age group you want to help.
