Knollwood Baptist Church—Winston-Salem, N.C.

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless;
to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes;
to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

THE OPENING SENTENCE Lucrecia Norman

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

*“More Love to Thee, O Christ”.....arr. Robert J. Powell
Lauren Winkelman, organ*

THE CALL TO WORSHIP..... Lucrecia Norman

One: In the name of the Risen Lord, you are invited: Come, all who labor,

All: For we are in need of Your rest.

One: Come all who labor to nurture families,

All: For we are in need of Your wisdom.

One: Come all who labor to speak truth in hard places,

All: For we are in need of Your courage.

One: Come all who labor to find light in dark places,

All: For we are in need of Your hope.

One: Come all who labor to love mercy and do justice,

All: For we are in need of Your presence and Your vision.

One: In You, God, is our work and our rest, our life and our hope. We gather to offer the prayers of our hearts and to hear the calling of Your Spirit.

All: So be it. Amen.

~Peggy Haymes

THE INVOCATION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER Lucrecia Norman

*THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN OF PRAISE, NO. 34

“Rejoice, Ye Pure in Heart”.....MARION

CONFESSING OUR NEED FOR FORGIVENESS

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison) Diane Lipsett

We confess, O God, that we have tried to do too much and too little. Convinced that it's all up to us, we try to do everything, only to wind up burned out, worn out and weary. Or fearful that we cannot do anything of value, we attempt nothing, and grow discouraged when nothing changes. God forgive us the arrogance that does not trust You to be at work in this world. And forgive us the fear that believes You cannot use the likes of us. In the name of Jesus who both sends us out and invites us to rest, we pray.

~Peggy Haymes

THE SILENT CONFESSION

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Appreciation is expressed to Lisa Sykes, Dorothy Wagener, and Kathryn Ashworth for sharing their musical gifts this morning.

Today’s Call to Worship and Prayer of Confession were written by Knollwood member Peggy Haymes. Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Curtis E. Long, and in recognition of their wedding anniversary (August 19) by his wife, Sara S. Long.

The white rose on the altar is given by Knollwood Baptist Church in memory of Bill Amos. It is a symbol of the love and esteem in which this community of faith held him.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

In the Bible and in church tradition, the dove and fire symbolize the Holy Spirit. According to the four Gospels, the Spirit descended on Jesus like a dove at his baptism (Mark 1:10 and parallels). John the Baptist promised the Messiah would baptize with the Holy Spirit “and with fire” (Matthew 3:11; Luke 3:16). From Moses’ encounter with God by the burning bush (Exodus 3:1-6) to the tongues of fire at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-4), fire is a sign of God’s riveting, transforming presence. The Pentecost banner depicts the fire of God’s challenge and the dove of God’s gentle loving care. The artist who designed and painted the Pentecost banner is our own Bambi Setzer.

In the last session, we'll discover some benefits of meditation. Led by yoga instructor and health and wellness coach Jennie Schwarz. Limited to 20 participants.
