*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless; to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes; to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves "as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship."

THE OPENING SENTENCE Josh Godwin

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP..... Josh Godwin

One: We gather for worship.

All: For this moment, busy lives may be still. Lonely lives may find community.

One: We gather for worship.

All: For this moment, we may lay aside what we think we know for what the Spirit is waiting to teach. Doubt and faith may stand hand in hand.

One: We gather for worship.

All: In this moment, we may hear a call bigger than we'd dreamed of for ourselves. Love leads us to a God-dreamed life.

One: We gather for worship.

All: God help us. God be present with us. God be stirring among us. Amen.

~Peggy Haymes

One: Lift up your hearts!

All: We lift them to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise!

The Prayer of Confession

God, forgive us,

For the blindness that ignores the face of need around us.

For the arrogance that declares that we ourselves have no need of help.

For our eagerness to wear the name of Christ without walking in the way of Christ.

God, forgive us. Heal us. Transform us. Amen.

~Peggy Haymes

The Words of Institution

Sharing the Bread and the Cup

This morning, we will serve one another Communion as brothers and sisters in the family of God. Please use the center aisle to approach the table at the front of the section where you are seated. Once a circle of worshipers forms around the table, the minister will offer the first person the bread of Communion and say, "The love of God for you." That person then passes the bread to the next person in the circle and says, "The love of God for you," and so on. As the bread is being passed, the minister will offer the chalice to the first person served and say, "The peace of Christ for you." That person will dip his or her bread in the chalice and take Communion. He or she will then hold the chalice for the next person in the circle and say, "The peace of Christ for you," and so on. Gluten-free wafers are available for those who need them.

Please remain standing at the table until everyone is served, then return to your seat by the outside aisle by the wall.

(If you prefer to have Communion served at your seat, please indicate with a raised hand and a deacon will assist you.)

The Bread and the Cup

"And Still the Bread Is Broken" David Ashley White

The Chancel Choir; Annie Winkelman, oboe

When Jesus died to save us, a word, an act he gave us;

And still that word is spoken, and still the bread is broken.

He was the Word that spake it, he took the bread and brake it,

And what that Word did make it, I do believe and take it.

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Appreciation is expressed to Annie Winkelman and Mary Ann Davis for sharing their musical gifts. Our concluding hymn, “Spirit of God, Descend Upon My Heart,” relates to today’s liturgical emphasis, the Baptism of Jesus, and specifically, the sending of God’s Spirit at Jesus’ baptism. On this MLKjr holiday weekend, the choir is singing the African-American spiritual “Every Time I Feel the Spirit.”

Today’s Call to Worship and Prayer of Confession were written by Knollwood member Peggy Haymes.

The acolytes are Austin Fowler and Ella Larmore and the crucifer is Anna Ball.

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

BENEVOLENCE OFFERING

On Communion Sunday, a benevolence offering is taken to help with benevolent needs in the Knollwood family and wider community. Ushers will be in the narthex following worship to receive donations.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Dr. David Beavers and Mrs. Betty Beavers by their children, David Jr., Philip, Janet, Gail, Judy, and Bill.

The flowers in the narthex are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Margaret Wiggins by Tom & Rachel Wiggins and family.

The white rose on the altar is given by Knollwood Baptist Church in memory of Jeannette Bowman. It is a symbol of the love and esteem in which this community of faith held her.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

“The way” is a familiar biblical theme encompassing such truths as “the way of the Lord” (Isaiah 40:3), Jesus as “the way” (John 14:6), and “the way” as a description of Christian discipleship (Acts 9:2). The words on the banner point to the movements of faith: Longing for God that impels us forward in the spiritual journey; Learning the way of the Scriptures and the way of Jesus; Loving as our love for God and our neighbors deepens; and Living as we live out of Christian faith and witness in the world.

The colors of the banner emphasize green for “ordinary time,” the period in the church year between Pentecost and Advent. The artist who designed and painted the banners is our own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children’s Worship resumes this month for 1st through 3rd graders. It meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month. During the Hymn of Devotion, children meet their leaders in the narthex to walk together to Children’s Worship (B244). After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. For the 2nd and 4th Sundays children are invited to enjoy the worship service with their families. Children’s activity bulletins and crayons are available in the narthex.

BEING PROTESTANT, BEING BAPTIST, BEING KNOLLWOOD

JANUARY 18

Being Baptist: One 19th Century Woman's Story

The Second Great Awakening, the Protestant revival that swept the U.S. around the turn of the 19th century, shaped the experience of being Baptist in America. The largely untold story of Sarah "Sally" Merriam Wait (1794-1871), wife of Wake Forest founder Samuel Wait, reveals much about the Baptist experience of the time. Come learn about Sally's way of being Baptist from her great-great-great-granddaughter and researcher, Mary Tribble, senior advisor for engagement strategies at Wake Forest University.

Being Knollwood: Pivot Points in our History

As we prepare to celebrate Knollwood's 60th anniversary, we'll reflect on key turning points that have shaped our congregation's identity and character.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ELECTIVE: HOW TO READ A MIRACLE

A study of Gospel healing stories

Sundays, January 22 & 29, February 12, 19, & 26, 2017

9:45-10:40 a.m., upstairs, Noffsinger Building, led by Diane Lipsett

The New Testament Gospels tell vivid stories of encounters between Jesus and persons with illness and disability—encounters that usually lead to sudden cure. In this five-week Bible study, we'll explore some of these stories, asking questions that arise from our own experiences and theologies while seeking the wisdom of the Gospels. We'll consider relations between ancient and modern views of illness and disability, Jesus and other ancient healers, sin and sickness, healing and cure, and interpretations that may harm versus those that help.

This Sunday School elective is offered primarily for 20/30-something young adults (singles or couples) but is open to others who are not already attending a Sunday morning Bible study class. The group will be limited in size, so please sign up in advance by calling or emailing the church office: 336-725-1343 or frontdesk@knollwood.org.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 22 MEETING FOR SERVICE TRIP TO PROJECT AMOS IN NICARAGUA

July 7-16, 2017

Plans are being made for a trip next summer to a rural area of Nicaragua to work with AMOS Health and Hope, one of our International Missions Offering partners. AMOS is a Christian non-profit organization that exists to improve the health of impoverished communities by working alongside them in health, education, and development. Delegations, or Team Service Trips, help support priority community projects like building water filters for families, health clinics, and school buildings, and conducting community health screenings for pregnant moms and children. AMOS designs a service trip to complement the skills of a group with the strengths and needs of communities through their long-term projects.

Come join us at an informational meeting on Sunday, January 22 at 3:30 p.m. in the chapel to find out more about this service opportunity. Contact Beth Fields, Mark Jensen, or Dr. Bob if you have questions.
