*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Today’s Call to Worship and Prayer of Confession were written by Knollwood member Bonnie McCarson.

The acolytes are Anderson Beliveau and Mason Maguire, and the crucifer is Matthew Maguire.

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in memory of Bill Goetz by Milt and Jo Anne Goetz

The white rose on the altar is given by Knollwood Baptist Church in memory of John Henderson. It is a symbol of the love and esteem in which this community of faith held him.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

“The way” is a familiar biblical theme encompassing such truths as “the way of the Lord” (Isaiah 40:3), Jesus as “the way” (John 14:6), and “the way” as a description of Christian discipleship (Acts 9:2). The words on the banner point to the movements of faith: Longing for God that impels us forward in the spiritual journey; Learning the way of the Scriptures and the way of Jesus; Loving as our love for God and our neighbors deepens; and Living as we live out of Christian faith and witness in the world.

The colors of the banner emphasize green for “ordinary time,” the period in the church year between Pentecost and Advent. The artist who designed and painted the banners is our own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children's Worship resumes this month for 1st through 3rd graders. It meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month. During the Hymn of Devotion, children meet their leaders in the narthex to walk together to Children's Worship (B244). TODAY, JANUARY 22 MEETING FOR SERVICE TRIP TO PROJECT AMOS IN NICARAGUA July 7-16, 2017

Plans are being made for a trip next summer to a rural area of Nicaragua to work with AMOS Health and Hope, one of our International Missions Offering partners. AMOS is a Christian non-profit organization that exists to improve the health of impoverished communities by working alongside them in health, education, and development. Delegations, or Team Service Trips, help support priority community projects like building water filters for families, health clinics, and school buildings, and conducting community health screenings for pregnant moms and children. AMOS designs a service trip to complement the skills of a group with the strengths and needs of communities through their long-term projects.

Come join us at an informational meeting today at 3:30 p.m. in the chapel to find out more about this service opportunity. Contact Beth Fields, Mark Jensen, or Dr. Bob if you have questions.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ELECTIVE: HOW TO READ A MIRACLE

A study of Gospel healing stories starting January 29

Sundays, January 29, February 12, 19, & 26, 2017

9:45-10:40 a.m., upstairs, Noffsinger Bldg., led by Diane Lipsett

The New Testament Gospels tell vivid stories of encounters between Jesus and persons with illness and disability—encounters that usually lead to sudden cure. In this five-week Bible study, we'll explore some of these stories, asking questions that arise from our own experiences and theologies while seeking the wisdom of the Gospels. We'll consider relations between ancient and modern views of illness and disability, Jesus and other ancient healers, sin and sickness, healing and cure, and interpretations that may harm versus those that help.

This Sunday School elective is offered primarily for 20/30-something young adults (singles or couples) but is open to others who are not already attending a Sunday morning Bible study class. The group will be limited in size, so please sign up in advance by calling or emailing the church office: 336-725-1343 or frontdesk@knollwood.org.

DEACON NOMINATIONS ACCEPTED THROUGH FEB. 12

Our Deacon Nominations process this year is for 12 Deacons for three-year terms ending in 2020. To begin the process of filling these vacancies, the Deacon Nominating Committee is accepting nominations from the congregation. Deacons will be elected by congregational vote in the spring. Please use the standards for Diaconate membership as outlined online at www.knollwood.org/resources/deacon-nominations as a guide for individuals you might want to suggest for nomination. It is not necessary to obtain approval from a Knollwood member before recommending him/her for consideration as a member of the Diaconate.

You are encouraged to submit your written recommendations for the Diaconate through the church office, offering plate, or directly to the Deacon Nominating Committee Chair, judithkuhn44@gmail.com. The committee will accept recommendations through Feb. 12.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS

Come for a healthy dinner and good table conversation (5:30-6:05 p.m.), hear the latest joys and concerns of our community (6:05-6:15 p.m.), then join one of these good adult faith formation options for the month of October (6:15-7:00 p.m.).
