Knollwood Baptist Church - Winston-Salem, North Carolina

We believe that we are led by the Holy Spirit to constitute this church to fill a community need.

We are not prompted by a spirit of dissatisfaction with any church. The new church will be constituted and its buildings erected for the glory of God and the advancement of His Kingdom.

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

THE OPENING SENTENCE Lucrecia Norman

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

“God of Grace and God of Glory” arr. Anna Laura Page Chancel Bells

THE CALL TO WORSHIP..... Lucrecia Norman

One: We gather to worship the God who led us through the wilderness places of our past.

All: We gather to worship the God in whose hands our future is held.

One: We gather to worship the God who is present with us in this very moment.

All: May God's Spirit breathe through us. May God's love surround us. May God's calling challenge us.
~Peggy Haymes

THE CHORAL INTROIT

“From All That Dwell Below the Skies” Gordon Young Chancel Choir, Knollwood Brass

From all that dwell below the skies let the Creator's praise arise:

Let the Redeemer's name be sung though every land, by every tongue.

Eternal are Thy mercies, Lord; eternal truth attends Thy word:

Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore, till suns shall rise and set no more.

THE INVOCATION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER Lucrecia Norman

*THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN OF PRAISE, as printed on p. 6

“In This Place of Light and Beauty” HYFRYDOL, arr. Cathy Moglebust Congregation, Chancel Choir, Chancel Bells, Knollwood Brass

This hymn was commissioned for Knollwood's sanctuary rededication, Sept. 16, 2012.

THE COVENANT OF CELEBRATION AND COMMITMENT Bob Setzer, Jr.

God, who gave us birth and has sustained us to this day,

Hear our prayer of gratitude.

For the vision of people who saw a need,

and the sweetness of a people who gathered in an ice cream shop

to dream this future church,

we give You thanks.

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

For windows that let the world in
and a community determined to go out into the world,
we give You thanks.

For the reflections of Your creative Spirit
heard in the music within these walls,
seen in the art hung upon these walls,
and encountered in the dramas that break down our walls,
we give You thanks.

For messy grace poured out in coffee houses,
and prayers offered with knitting needles,
we give You thanks.

For wading into the waters of justice,
even when done with knocking knees and uncertain hearts,
we give You thanks.

For laughter that makes us cry,
and weeping that breaks our hearts,
and for sharing it all with strangers who become friends,
and for friends who become family,
we give You thanks.

For a hundred different beliefs
united in one heart of service,
we give You thanks.

In gratitude and in faith, we commit ourselves again this day
to be Knollwood Baptist Church
learning to love and live like Jesus with head, heart and hands.

"For all that has been, thank you.
For all that will be, Yes."

~Peggy Haymes (quote by Dag Hammarskjöld)

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Today we celebrate Founder’s Day, at Knollwood Baptist Church. The three congregational hymns were written for historical occasions at Knollwood: “O God of Love” by founding pastor Jack Ricks Noffsinger for our 25th anniversary, “We Know You, O God, as the Giver of Grace” by pastor Christopher C. F. Chapman for our 50th anniversary, and “In This Place of Light and Beauty” by hymn writer Mary Louise (Mel) Bringle for our sanctuary rededication.

The organ piece composed by Margaret Sandresky, “Six Variations on NATIONAL HYMN,” was commissioned by Kimberly Marshall in honor of Knollwood’s 60th anniversary and premiered on her recital last October. The work is played again today as part of Knollwood’s Founders’ Day celebration.

We welcome the Knollwood Brass today, and appreciate their contribution to our celebration: Forrest Causby, Mike Cherry, Marty Farmer, Fred Norman, Lousson Smith, Christopher Williams, Daniel Winkelman, Steve Ball, Josh Godwin, Rob Hampson, Stephen Hampson, Jan Strohl, Wesley Davis, and Steve Shelton.

Today’s Call to Worship and Covenant of Celebration and Commitment were written by Knollwood member Peggy Haymes.

The acolytes are Virginia Churn and Iris Sanders and the crucifer is Anna Ball.

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Ernestine Burns by her daughter, Anne Compere, her children and grandchildren.

The flowers in the narthex are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Dr. Jack & Mrs. Louise Noffsinger on Knollwood’s 60th anniversary celebration, and also in loving memory of her parents, Fred J. Flagler and Mary Hill Gaston Flagler, on their wedding anniversary by Owen and Eleanor Flagler Hardy.

The red rose on the altar is to announce the birth of a daughter, Sophie Rebecca to Stephen and Lindsey Chan.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

“The way” is a familiar biblical theme encompassing such truths as “the way of the Lord” (Isaiah 40:3), Jesus as “the way” (John 14:6), and “the way” as a description of Christian discipleship (Acts 9:2). The words on the banner point to the movements of faith: Longing for God that impels us forward in the spiritual journey; Learning the way of the Scriptures and the way of Jesus; Loving as our love for God and our neighbors deepens; and Living as we live out of Christian faith and witness in the world.

The colors of the banner emphasize green for “ordinary time,” the period in the church year between Pentecost and Advent. The artist who designed and painted the banners is our own Bambi Setzer.

Winter has arrived with the threat of weather that may affect gatherings at KBC. It is our goal to keep everyone as safe as possible and get out the information needed as quickly as possible. Information about cancellations, closings, and delays will be posted on WXII Channel 12, WGHP Fox 8 and WFMY Channel 2, as soon as decisions are made. The KBC website at www.knollwood.org will also have information. Those who have signed up for emails from Knollwood, can check email for the latest updates. Sign up for KBC announcements by contacting colleen@knollwood.org.
