

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

THE SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

Sunday, March 12, 2017

10:55 a.m.

www.knollwood.org

To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts; to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless; to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes; to all who want rest, peace, and happiness--this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

THE OPENING SENTENCE Diane Lipsett

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

*“When I Survey the Wondrous Cross”..... arr. Healey Willan
Lauren Winkelman, organ*

THE CHORAL INTROIT

“Come, Peace of God”..... Eugene Butler

The Men’s Choir

Come, peace of God, and dwell again on earth, Come with the calm that hailed thy Prince’s birth, Come with the healing of thy gentle touch, Come, peace of God, that this world needs so much.

*Break ev’ry weapon forged in fires of hate, Turn back the foe that would assail thy gate;
Where fields of strife lie desolate and bare Take thy sweet flow’rs of peace and plant them there.*

THE CALL TO WORSHIP..... Diane Lipsett

One: We lift our eyes to you, our God, our helper.

All: We give thanks to you, our God, our protector.

One: When you call, give us courage to obey,

All: For our faith in you is our salvation.

One: Your love for us calls us to change—radical change,

All: For in loving others we bring your Kingdom near. ~Chip Mims

THE INVOCATION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER..... Diane Lipsett

*THE HYMN OF PRAISE, NO. 95

“All Hail the Power of Jesus’ Name”..... CORONATION

LISTENING FOR GOD’S WORD

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON: Genesis 12:1-4a Ted Philpott

One: This is the word of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON: Romans 4:1-5, 13 Ted Dougherty

One: This is the word of God. Deacon of the Week

All: Thanks be to God.

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

THE CHORAL INTERLUDE

“Come, Peace of God” Eugene Butler

The Men’s Choir

*Bring selfish lives from shadowlands of loss into the radiance of the Savior’s cross,
Where in that gift so precious, yet so lone, life finds its brotherhood and love its throne.*

*Come, blessed peace as when in hush of eve God’s benediction falls on souls who grieve;
As shines a star when weary day departs, come, peace of God, and rule within our hearts.*

*THE GOSPEL LESSON: John 3:1-8Josh Godwin

One: This is the Gospel of Christ.

All: Thanks be to God.

*THE HYMN OF DEVOTION, NO. 494

“I’m New Born Again” NEW BORN AGAIN

We invite the children, grades 1st through 3rd to remain in worship with their parents.
Children’s Worship is on the first and third, fifth Sundays of the month.

Worship Care for preschool and kindergarten is offered weekly.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE..... Diane Lipsett

THE ANTHEM

“How Can I Keep from Singing?” arr. Bradley Ellingboe

The Men’s Choir; Annie Winkelman, oboe

My life flows on in endless song above earth’s lamentation.

I hear the real, tho’ far-off hymn that hails a new creation.

No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I’m clinging.

Since love is lord of heav’n and earth, how can I keep from singing?

Thru’ all the tumult and the strife, I hear the music ringing!

It sounds and echoes in my soul. How can I keep from singing?

No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I’m clinging.

Since love is lord of heav’n and earth, how can I keep from singing?

What tho’ the tempest ‘round me roar, I hear the truth. It liveth.

What tho’ the darkness ‘round me close, Songs in the night it giveth.

No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I’m clinging.

Since love is lord of heav’n and earth, how can I keep from singing?

~Robert Lowry

THE SERMON..... Bob Setzer, Jr.

THE NEW BIRTH

THE CELEBRATION OF HOLY COMMUNION

The Sursum Corda..... Bob Setzer, Jr.

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Lift up your hearts!

All: We lift them to the Lord.

One: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise!

The Prayer of Confession (Unison)

God of life and light, we stand before you guilty. We devalue people who don’t look like us, dress like us, love like us, earn like us, vote like us. Forgive us.

The Scriptures say, “Love your neighbors as yourself.” Jesus said every man, woman and child is our neighbor. Help us make this love a reality in our lives, which will move us from platitudes to action.

~Chip Mims

The Words of Institution

Sharing the Bread and the Cup

We invite the congregation to come forward for communion. Please approach the rail using the two center aisles, and exit down the side aisles. You may kneel or stand as you wish and receive the bread and cup. All wafers are gluten-free. If you prefer to have communion served at your seat, please indicate with a raised hand and a deacon will assist you.

TO OUR GUESTS

We extend to you a sincere welcome and the hope that you will find your worship experience meaningful. You are invited to the narthex for a brief time of fellowship following worship where you can meet church members and clergy, and learn more about this congregation. We would ask that you record your visit by filling out the friendship pad in the pew; email addresses are especially helpful. To learn more about Knollwood Baptist Church, find us online at www.knollwood.org. You can also receive our newsletter and email announcements by emailing colleen@knollwood.org, or just call the church office, 725-1343. Sunday School at Knollwood begins at 9:45 a.m.

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Appreciation is expressed to Dan Knight and Annie Winkelman for sharing their musical gifts this morning.

Today's Call to Worship and Prayer of Confession were written by Knollwood member Chip Mims.

The acolytes are Greer Poole and Iris Sanders and the crucifer is Anna Ball.

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in memory of L. Gray Boles by his son Mickey, Katy and family.

The flowers in the narthex are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Gladys Mims by her family.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

According to the Gospels, Jesus spent 40 days in the wilderness of Judea wrestling with the kind of Messiah he would be. There, Jesus renounced the seductions of power, success, and status to follow in the way of suffering love. He must have realized early on, that his path would lead to a confrontation with the civil and religious authorities. Nonetheless, Jesus "set his face to go to Jerusalem" (Luke 9:51), even if that meant--as ultimately it did--he would face death on a cross. The banners portray Jesus in the wilderness, contemplating the road ahead. They will remain up throughout Lent, a 40-day period of preparation for the celebration of Easter. The artist is Knollwood's own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children's Worship resumes this month for 1st through 3rd graders. It meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month. During the Hymn of Devotion, children meet their leaders in the narthex to walk together to Children's Worship (B244). After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. Volunteers are needed to help chaperone the children during that time. If you are interested in volunteering one Sunday, please contact Chrissy Hardy, chrissy@knollwood.org.

For the 2nd and 4th Sundays children are invited to enjoy the worship service with their families. Children's activity bulletins and crayons are available in the narthex.

BENEVOLENCE OFFERING

On Communion Sunday, a benevolence offering is taken to help with benevolent needs in the Knollwood family and wider community. Ushers will be in the narthex following worship to receive donations.

WOMEN'S RETREAT

Nearly 50 Knollwood women are away this weekend at the 2017 Women's Retreat. Our retreat leader is Amy Joyner Finkelberg and our theme this year is "Listening Our Way Through Lent." We gathered at the Catholic Conference Center in Hickory on Friday evening and will end our time together this Sunday morning with a worship service and communion. Our retreat leader invites us to slow down and listen more carefully to God's Word, to those we love, and to the wisdom of our own hearts.

~ Chris Norman

RESOURCES TO SUPPORT SPIRITUAL FORMATION DURING LENT

To enrich your prayer and Bible study practices during Lent, you are invited to take and use a copy of our adult guide to "Prayers for the Welfare of the City," our children's ministry calendar of Lenten prayers, or the Lenten Bible study guide, "Mark's Passion Story Deep and Wide." All are available in the narthex today, in the church office during the week, and on the church website:

www.knollwood.org/ministries/Lenten-devotions. Printed copies are available in the church office.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS

Come for a healthy dinner and fellowship (5:30-6:05 p.m.), hear the joys and concerns of our community (6:05-6:15 p.m.), then join one of these good adult faith formation options (6:15-7:00 p.m.).

OPTION 1 - Mark's Passion Story—Deep and Wide

MARCH 15 through APRIL 5 - A Lenten Bible Study, with close reading of the Gospel and exploration of how Jesus' story continues to draw us in. Led by Richard Vinson and Diane Lipsett. Everyone welcome, in the fellowship hall

OPTION 2 - Listening as a Lenten Practice (Especially in Times of Tension and Difference)

MARCH 15, 22 - This group will provide a space for reflection and practice on ways to listen with open ears, open mind, and open heart. Especially in times of relational tension and difference, listening can become a difficult but beneficial spiritual practice to facilitate a compassionate, discerning presence for authentic connection with others, ourselves and God. We will also reflect on how to protect against potential noise pollution within our world and ourselves that may get in our way of spacious listening. Facilitated by Melanie Taylor, MS, LMFT, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, CareNet Counseling. 6:15-7:00 p.m., in the Pilgrimage Classroom, Bldg. A. The group will be limited in size. To ensure a spot, please contact the church office, 336-725-1343 or frontdesk@knollwood.org.

OPTION 3 - Hygge and Happiness as a Lenten Practice

MARCH 15, 22 - In a social context that feels fractured and jarring, a commitment to the sacredness and safety of ordinary moments can become a Lenten practice. Hygge (pronounced hue-gah) is a Danish word for a feeling or mood that comes in taking genuine pleasure in making ordinary, everyday moments more meaningful, beautiful or special. Some refer to hygge as an "art of creating intimacy" (either with yourself, friends, or your home). This three-part series will present hygge and explore its connection to the virtues we seek in Lent. Led by Rachel Stinehelfer and Jamie Southern, 6:15-7:00 p.m., in the Chapel, Bldg. A. The group will be limited in size. To ensure a spot, please contact the church office, 336-725-1343 or frontdesk@knollwood.org.

ST. TIMOTHY'S WOMEN'S OVERFLOW SHELTER – URGENT NEED

We are in the home stretch in our partnership with St. Timothy's Episcopal Church to staff the women's overflow homeless for the winter months. Knollwood has agreed to cover Thursday nights, and we have a serious need for overnight volunteers in order to fulfill our commitment to our unhoused neighbors. This is a great opportunity to connect with the most vulnerable in our community and serve them in a critical way. To get more information and to sign up, visit citywithdwellings.org/shelters/st-timothys. Email Forrest Causby for more information, fcausby@gmail.com.

LEARNING ABOUT ISLAM AND ARABIC CULTURE: SOME BASICS

With Professor Jumana Al-Ahmad, MA, Middle Eastern Studies

Sundays after church, 12:30 - 2:00 p.m. (in five sessions) Fellowship Hall

March 19 & 26, April 23 and May 7 A Lunch-and-Learn Opportunity presented by All God's Children and the Adult Education Program of KBC.

After a well-attended first session on March 5th, the learning series continues on March 19. Even if you missed the first class or can't attend them all, you are welcome to come learn some basics of Islamic faith and practice, some features of Arabic society and culture, and some key Arabic phrases for expressing greetings, welcome, and hopes for peace. Our guest instructor, Jumana AlAhmad, will answer questions raised after the first gathering and take us deeper. She is an experienced teacher (Salem College, University of Richmond, University of Virginia) with particular interests in: human rights in Arab thought, literature and films; interpretation of the Qur'an; and teaching Arabic as a second language.

No cost for the sessions. A light lunch will be provided. Child care will be available by reservation for infants through fifth grade. To sign up contact frontdesk@knollwood.org, or 336-725-1343.

BAKE SALE POSTPONED

The bake sale to benefit AIDS Care Service announced in last week's worship order has been postponed until later this Spring. A new date will be announced shortly. Thank you for your support of ACS!

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, KNOLLWOOD BLOOD DRIVE, 2:00 – 6:30 P.M.

In the Fellowship Hall. Register by contacting Anne Harrison, apharrison@aol.com or 336-765-7754.

SUNDAY, MARCH 19 - AMOS, KNOLLWOOD & COMMUNITIES: PARTNERS IN HEALTH & HOPE

In a special adult Sunday School elective, come and meet Drs. David and Laura Parajon of AMOS Health and Hope, one of our International Missions Offering partners, 9:45-10:45 a.m. in the Chapel, Building A. AMOS is a Christian non-profit organization that exists to improve the health of impoverished communities by working alongside them in health, education, and development in Nicaragua. All who are interested are also invited to a simple lunch with the Parajons after worship in the Dining Room of Bldg. B.,

SATURDAY, MARCH 25 YOUTH MISSIONS FUNDRAISER

2-4:00 p.m. CAR WASH Kick off your Saturday with a clean car (weather permitting).

5-8:00 p.m. LIVE MUSIC, GAMES FOR KIDS, SILENT AUCTION, BUY-IT-NOW and COOK OUT.

All proceeds will help support the many mission ministries of KBC.ym.

Silent Auction: If you'd like to donate an item, gift, or service for the Silent Auction please contact either Becky Ball (prattball@gmail.com) or Josh (josh@knollwood.org). Submissions due by March 21. Donations can be brought to the church office M-F, 8 a.m.- 5 p.m. To schedule a drop-off, contact Josh.

Monetary donations are also gratefully welcomed in the form of cash or check made out to Knollwood Baptist Church and designated for the Youth Missions Fundraiser.

MARCH 26, CHILDREN'S SUNDAY

Our children are working hard to prepare for leading our congregation in meaningful worship on Children's Sunday. Many of our children are not yet comfortable speaking in front of a large group, but have the equally important task of serving as ushers that morning. While most of us are in the habit of writing a monthly or quarterly check or bank drafting our tithe to Knollwood, it would be wonderful if on this Sunday you could bring the green! We would like our kids to have a visual representation of generosity by filling those trays with bills. Mark your calendars and run by the ATM.
