Knollwood Baptist Church—Winston-Salem, N.C.

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless; to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes;

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves "as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship."

THE OPENING SENTENCE Josh Godwin

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

"Allegro" Tommaso G. Albinoni

Lousson Smith, trumpet

THE CHORAL INTROIT

"All Glory, Laud, and Honor" ST. THEODULPH

The Chancel Choir

*All glory, laud, and honor to thee, Redeemer, King,
To whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.
Thou art the king of Israel, thou David's royal Son,
Who in the Lord's name comest, the King and blessed One!*

THE CALL TO WORSHIP..... Josh Godwin

One: Wave high your palm branches! The Lord of life approaches!

All: Sing with great joy for the Savior has come to us!

One: Even the beast of burden on which he rides seems to be royal.

All: All creation shouts praises to the King of Kings!

One: Hosanna! Hosanna!

All: Blessed is he who comes in the Name of the Lord. Hosanna! AMEN.

CONFESSING OUR NEED FOR FORGIVENESS

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison) Lucrecia Norman

Forgive us, God, for we confess that we don't know what to do with such a day.
We're ready for a parade but not a cross. We're ready for the cheers of a crowd but not the whispers of betrayal.

Forgive us, God, when we are too much like Peter, turning our backs on You out of fear. We are too much like the disciples, not willing to bear witness to suffering that must be seen. Forgive us, God, that we may be more like those women who, for the love of You, stayed with You through Your death and the days after.

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

Grant us the courage to face Friday. Grant us the hope that its end will be but a beginning, that out of death life may yet come. Amen.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Smith, Sr. (Gene’s parents) by Gene and Glenna.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

According to the Gospels, Jesus spent 40 days in the wilderness of Judea wrestling with the kind of Messiah he would be. There, Jesus renounced the seductions of power, success, and status to follow in the way of suffering love. He must have realized early on, that his path would lead to a confrontation with the civil and religious authorities. Nonetheless, Jesus “set his face to go to Jerusalem” (Luke 9:51), even if that meant--as ultimately it did--he would face death on a cross. The banners portray Jesus in the wilderness, contemplating the road ahead. They will remain up throughout Lent, a 40-day period of preparation for the celebration of Easter. The artist is Knollwood's own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. Volunteers are needed to help chaperone the children during that time. HELP THE BOLTON GIRLS ON THE MOVE CLUB

The Bolton Elementary Girls on the Move Club uses running as a means to help its members learn important values and life lessons. Two Bolton teachers meet with the girls after school and help them train to run a 5K race. In addition to running, the girls share a snack and a discussion time. This year there are 20 girls who want to run in the Hammerbird 5K race to support Habitat for Humanity. The club needs to raise $20 per girl to pay for their registration fee and a t-shirt. To support one or more of these girls, please get your check, (memo line: Bolton Girls on the Move Club) to the church office by April 11.

Each girl runs the Hammerbird 5K with an adult. Many of these girls still need an adult to run as their buddy for the race on April 22. To volunteer to be a running buddy for a Bolton Girl, please contact their faculty sponsor Hannah Carmen, hlcarmen@wsfcs.k12.nc.us.
