Knollwood Baptist Church—Winston-Salem, N.C.

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless;
to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes;
to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: God is my chosen portion and my cup.

All: You are our God; we have no good apart from you.

CONFESSING OUR NEED FOR FORGIVENESS

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison) Diane Lipsett

We are slow to believe rumors of resurrection. We still lock ourselves into rooms of fear, alone and together. We don’t know how to unlock the door and venture outside. We need the Risen One to speak peace to us, to touch our wounds, and invite us to touch and see the wounded heart of God. We need the Risen One to breathe Spirit into us, and invite us beyond ourselves – to a world blooming with Easter grace.
~Mark Jensen

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Today's Call to Worship and Prayer of Confession were written by Knollwood member Mark Jensen. The acolytes are Virginia Ann Churn and Jackson Poole and the crucifer is Steve Ball. Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!
Printed music used by permission of OneLicense.net #A-724940.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Master William N. (Tad) Homan Jr. (April 27, 1973 - October 15, 1981) and his grandparents, Thad and Mildred Garner by Kathryn Garner.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

The Easter banner views Jesus' resurrection from the inside of the tomb looking out. The grave clothes reflect the note in John 20:7 that the burial linens were left in the tomb with the head wrapping separate from the rest. The contrasting darkness within the tomb and the brightness outside point to the light of God's new day breaking upon a "new creation" (2 Corinthians 5:17). As Jesus exits the tomb, clothed in a loin cloth, he is about to surprise Mary with the realization, "The Lord is risen! The Lord is risen indeed!" (John 20:18). The artist who painted the banner is our own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children's Worship resumes this month for 1st through 3rd graders. It meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month. During the Hymn of Devotion, children meet their leaders in the narthex to walk together to Children's Worship (B244). After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. Volunteers are needed to help chaperone the children during that time. If you are interested in volunteering one Sunday, please contact Chrissy Hardy, chrissy@knollwood.org.

For the 2nd and 4th Sundays children are invited to enjoy the worship service with their families. Children's activity bulletins and crayons are available in the narthex.

THE PRIVILEGE OF GIVING

Next Sunday is Commitment Sunday and marks the end of this year's Generosity initiative. As you contemplate your support of Knollwood and its many missions, please give prayerful consideration to tithing this year. Our financial support of the church is a strong indicator of our relationship with God and our commitment to doing the Lord's work. Next Sunday we will bring our Generosity commitment cards to the sanctuary to declare to God our support for His work.

Generosity initiative information has been mailed to Knollwood members. The mailing included a letter, a giving table, and a commitment card. If you did not receive your letter or commitment card, copies are available in the narthex, or you may download copies here:
