

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

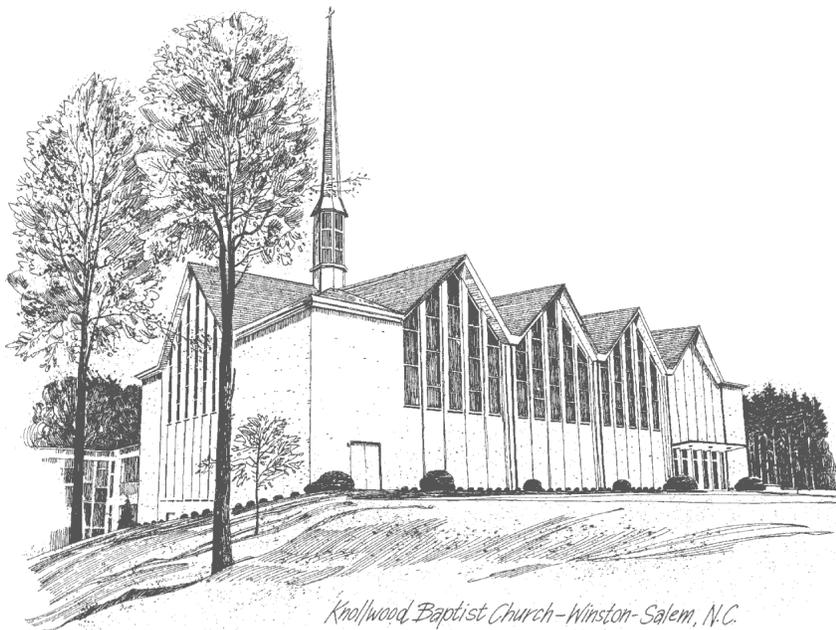

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

YOUTH SUNDAY

Sunday, May 7, 2017

10:55 a.m.

www.knollwood.org

To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts; to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless; to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes; to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

THE OPENING SENTENCE Knollwood Youth

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

“Jubilate” Douglas E. Wagner

Middle School Bells; David Winkelman, Director

THE CALL TO WORSHIP..... Greer Poole, Abby Timmons, Jake Timmons

One: God is the Shepherd

All: We are the flock

One: He leads us beside still waters

All: And we willingly follow.

One: Without the Shepherd

All: We tend to stray

One: But God will surely find us

All: Thanks be to God for being our Shepherd

THE CHORAL INTROIT

“An Easter Carol” Austin C. Lovelace

The Youth Choir

*Go ring your bells for Mary's Son,
His war with Death is lost and won!
Above the thorn a rose is born.*

*Christ comes again this Easter Day to breathe new life into our clay.
Above the thorn a rose is born.*

*Their songs of joy the robins raise,
where young buds shake in purest praise.
Above the thorn a rose is born.*

*Christ walks again His grieving earth;
go ring your bells in holy mirth.

THE INVOCATION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER Steve Ball

*THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN OF PRAISE, NO. 130

“O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing” AZMON

SENIOR REFLECTION..... Trent Igoe

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

Hearing aids and large print hymns are available from the ushers.

LISTENING FOR GOD’S WORD

THE OLD TESTAMENT LESSON: Psalm 23 Ella Larmore
One: This is the word of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

THE NEW TESTAMENT LESSON: 1 Peter 2:19-25 Elizabeth Wright
One: This is the word of God.
All: Thanks be to God.

THE INSTRUMENTAL INTERLUDE
“Ashokan Farewell” Jay Ungar
Jackson Poole, violin

THE CHILDREN’S TIME Knollwood Youth

THE CHORAL PSALM
“By the Gentle Waters” Cindy Berry

The Youth Choir
*By the gentle waters, You will safely lead me,
In green pastures feed me, knowing what is best.
Though I often stray, wander far away,
I can hear You say, “Come to me and rest.”*

*Though the path be rough and rugged,
Though the trail be dark and steep,
Still the gentle Shepherd watches o’er His sheep.*

*There’s no need to fear when the Shepherd’s near.
When Your voice I hear, I find comfort sure.
Free from all alarm, sheltered from all harm,
Safely in Your arms, I can rest secure.*

*With the flock abiding, all my needs supplying,
Comforting and guiding, leading all the way.*

*Jesus, loving Shepherd, You’ll forsake me never.
In Your flock forever, I am not alone.
Though the darkness hide me, You are close beside me.
Gentle Shepherd, guide me ‘til I’m safely home.*

*THE GOSPEL LESSON: John 10:1-10 Xander Tooze
One: This is the Gospel of Christ.
All: Thanks be to God.

SENIOR REFLECTION Wesley Davis

CONFESSING OUR NEED FOR FORGIVENESS

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison) Lily Sanders
Leading God,
We are not always the leading shepherd to other people that you are to us. We confess that we do not make the conscious effort we should to walk with the lost sheep of the community, whether they be disadvantaged, ill, or simply those who need a friend. Forgive us when we act as if we are the gatekeepers because you and your loving kindness are the only way to heavenly salvation. Please help us listen to your guidance and keep us in the loving safety of your flock.

THE SILENT CONFESSION

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON Annie Winkelman

SENIOR REFLECTION..... Elizabeth Wright

*THE HYMN OF DEVOTION, NO. 330

“The Lord’s My Shepherd, I’ll Not Want”..... CRIMOND

During the last stanza, children who are in first grade through third grade are invited to meet the Children’s Worship leaders in the narthex.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE.....Daniel Winkelman

THE ANTHEM

“Ubi Caritas” Ola Gjeilo

The Youth Choir

Translation: Where charity and love are, God is there. The love of Christ gathered us together. Let us rejoice and be glad in it. Let us revere and love the living God; and from a sincere heart let us love one another. Amen.

SENIOR REFLECTION.....Anna Ball

RESPONDING IN FAITH

THE INVITATION TO CHRISTIAN DISCIPLESHIP

If you desire membership in this congregation, you are invited to come forward and the pastor will greet you. If you prefer not to come forward, you may speak to one of the ministers after the service. As an open membership church, we honor your previous baptism in any other Christian community. If you have not made a confession of faith, we invite you to do so and receive Christian baptism. Church members are invited to commit themselves anew to God and to God’s service in the world.

TO OUR GUESTS

We extend to you a sincere welcome and the hope that you will find your worship experience meaningful. You are invited to the narthex for a brief time of fellowship following worship where you can meet church members and clergy, and learn more about this congregation. We would ask that you record your visit by filling out the friendship pad in the pew; email addresses are especially helpful. To learn more about Knollwood Baptist Church, find us online at www.knollwood.org. You can also receive our newsletter and email announcements by emailing colleen@knollwood.org, contact the church office, 725-1343. Sunday School at Knollwood begins at 9:45 a.m.

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

Today's worship service was prayerfully planned and led by the youth of Knollwood Baptist Church. Based on the conventions of our worship at Knollwood, the youth made this special service their own by determining the parts of worship and the scriptures heard and reflected on. In community together, the youth wrote the Opening Sentence, Call to Worship, Prayer of Confession, and Benediction. Our seniors bring their reflections and stories to the congregation today as part of the service. The youth make this offering of leadership this morning to those who have helped lead and shape them throughout their lives.

Ranging from sixth grade through twelfth grade, the youth ministry of KBC is a dynamic group of young people that seek to grow in faith and life together. We are especially thankful for the Sunday Night mentor team, Sunday School leaders, Youth Committee volunteers, and youth choir and handbell directors and mentors that dedicate their time to this fantastic group of young people.

The acolytes are Anderson Beliveau and Davis Churn and the crucifer is Matthew Maguire.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in memory of Mr. & Mrs. Julius R. Johnson, Sr. and Mr. & Mrs. William F. Houser by Frank Johnson and Sara H. Johnson on the occasion of his grandmothers' birthdays.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

The Easter banner views Jesus' resurrection from the inside of the tomb looking out. The grave clothes reflect the note in John 20:7 that the burial linens were left in the tomb with the head wrapping separate from the rest. The contrasting darkness within the tomb and the brightness outside point to the light of God's new day breaking upon a "new creation" (2 Corinthians 5:17). As Jesus exits the tomb, clothed in a loin cloth, he is about to surprise Mary with the realization, "The Lord is risen! The Lord is risen indeed!" (John 20:18). The artist who painted the banner is our own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children's Worship for 1st through 3rd graders meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month. During the Hymn of Devotion, children meet their leaders in the narthex to walk together to Children's Worship (B244). After the worship service, parents pick up their children from B244. For the 2nd and 4th Sundays children are invited to enjoy the worship service with their families. Children's worship bags, activity bulletins and sermon notes are available in the narthex.

SUNDAY, MAY 21, DEDICATION AND GRAND OPENING OF THE WCC

The office staff has now moved into the new building on the second floor. We will be recruiting volunteers to help people navigate the WCC starting on Monday, May 22, and running for two weeks. Details on how to volunteer will be coming soon.

Our congregation, neighbors, community partners, and refugee families will gather for a dedication on Sunday, May 21, beginning with the worship service. Afterward, we will move to the WCC for an afternoon of tours, food, arts activities, games, and fun for all ages. The day will include a complimentary meal served from local food trucks, exercise class demonstrations, and an intergenerational basketball game among other activities. We will offer reserved seating in the Fellowship Hall for our seniors and anyone with mobility challenges so that all can enjoy the day. More details will be mailed to you. Anne Philpott is chairing the dedication task force for this very special event. See pages 7 and 8 for schedule information.

PRIVILEGE OF GIVING COMMITMENTS

We are grateful for the outpouring of financial commitments Knollwood received on our April 30th Commitment Sunday and others sent in or registered online. These commitments reflect our belief that to whom much is given, much is expected.

We continue to welcome and receive financial commitments in support of our 2017 ministry plan which is budgeted to cost $1,457,183. If you have not yet had the opportunity to make your generosity commitment for calendar year 2017, commitment cards are available from the church office and online here: www.knollwood.org/resources/giving-online. Or, you can simply email your commitment to our financial administrator, Peggy Koonts, to finance@knollwood.org.

WEDNESDAY EVENINGS

Come for a healthy dinner and fellowship (5:30-6:05 p.m.), hear the joys and concerns of our community (6:05-6:15 p.m.), then join our adult faith formation time (6:15-7:00 p.m.).

May 10 – Celebrating Children’s Music

All ages together celebrating our children’s choirs, the Hymns for a Lifetime program, and the many leaders who create excellence in music ministry at Knollwood.

May 17 – Celebrating Church Life

The annual meeting of Knollwood Baptist Church, featuring the Grassy Knoll Bluegrass Band.

May 24 – Celebrating Community – here and around the world

Our lively end-of-year party will feature delicious foods from Italy, Mexico, and Syria (no charge for dinner). Many will be familiar; some might seem exotic. We’ll dance and play games that connect us to different parts of the world. Come enjoy fellowship, play, and the joy of being together in our corner of the planet while celebrating our connections to a much wider world.

TODAY, MAY 7, LEARNING ABOUT ISLAM AND ARABIC CULTURE: 12:30 - 2:00 P.M.

With Professor Jumana Al-Ahmad, MA, Middle Eastern Studies - This high interest learning series resumes with a focus this week on families, gender roles, and Muslims in the West. Even if you missed earlier classes, you are welcome to come learn some basics of Islamic faith, some features of Arabic culture, and some key Arabic phrases. Our guest instructor, Jumana Al-Ahmad, is an experienced teacher (Salem College, University of Richmond, University of Virginia) with particular interests in human rights in Arab thought, literature and films; interpretation of the Qur'an; and teaching Arabic as a second language. Feel free to invite guests from the community. No cost for the sessions. A light lunch will be provided (Syrian food this week, with an invitation to contribution to meal costs). Child care will be available by reservation for infants - 5th grade.

TUESDAY, MAY 9, SENIOR ADULT MINISTRIES INVITES YOU TO THE SINK LUNCHEON

Gather at 11:30 in the dining room. Lunch at noon in the Fellowship Hall.

The Senior Adult Luncheons began many years ago as a memorial to Brona Sink by her husband, Clyde. He designated monies to provide for the spring and fall luncheons each year. Norma Turnham now continues this tradition in memory of both her parents, Clyde and Brona Sink.

SATURDAY, MAY 13, MOTHER-DAUGHTER TEA PARTY

10:00-11:30 a.m. in the Dining Room. Pull out your fanciest tea party finery and get ready for a fun morning of celebrating mothers and other special women in our lives. Please register online: www.knollwood.org >Ministries > Children’s Ministries >Registration for Mother’s Day Tea.

KNOLLWOOD CARES MINISTRY

Knollwood Cares, the congregational care ministry of our church, would like to know of specific needs in our congregation. You may email your need to Crystal Leathers, Knollwood Cares Director, at crystal3leathers@gmail.com.
