the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes;
to all who want rest, peace, and happiness—this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

All: It is right to give our thanks and praise!

The Prayer of Confession

Holy One, we have spent too many hours and too many days in fearful places. We have believed that there is not enough. We have fed our envy, starved our compassion, blamed our enemies, and tried to look like we need nothing. We keep seeking to secure our lives and our futures through noisy and forceful means. We have failed to be grateful for daily provision, failed to share our abundance, failed to trust glimpses of grace and quiet joy. Forgive us. Feed us. Fill us.

~Mark Jensen

The Bread

Come to the table where the bread is broken.

Come to the table where the word of God is spoken.

And take this bread into your life as a token.

Come to the table of the Lord.

Come to the table and drink this wine.

Come to the table believing in this sign.

Renew your spirit with this food divine.

Come to the table of the Lord.

Hungry and thirsty, we come, Lord to Thee.

We humbly bow on bended knee.

Come to the table and dwell in God’s light.

Come to the table and kneel before His sight.

Join in communion and know His holy might.

Come to the table of the Lord. Amen.

BENEVOLENCE OFFERING

On Communion Sunday, a benevolence offering is taken to help with needs in the Knollwood family and wider community. Ushers will be in the narthex following worship to receive donations.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in celebration of the birthday of Virginia Oberle and in honor and memory of our other children: Kim, Shelley, Cathy, and Andrew by Terry and Sylvia Oberle.

The flowers in the narthex are given to the glory of God and in honor of Peggy Mims' birthday by Chip, Jade, Whit, and David Mims.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

In the Bible and in church tradition, the dove and fire symbolize the Holy Spirit. According to the four Gospels, the Spirit descended on Jesus like a dove at his baptism (Mark 1:10 and parallels). John the Baptist promised the Messiah would baptize with the Holy Spirit "and with fire" (Matthew 3:11; Luke 3:16). From Moses' encounter with God by the burning bush (Exodus 3:1-6) to the tongues of fire at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-4), fire is a sign of God's riveting, transforming presence. The Pentecost banner depicts the fire of God's challenge and the dove of God's gentle loving care. The artist who designed and painted the Pentecost banner is our own Bambi Setzer.

Wednesday, Aug. 30, Dr. J. Lee Hill and Dr. Bill J. Leonard in Conversation: The Spiritual and the Social

Two vibrant leaders, friends to Knollwood, will join us to reflect on church and culture, ministry and service, race and justice, generational change, and what a difference a decade makes. Lee Hill is Senior Pastor at Christian Fellowship Congregational Church (United Church of Christ) in San Diego. From 2004-06 he served as Knollwood's youth minister before moving to Riverside Church in New York City. Bill Leonard is founding dean of the School of Divinity at Wake Forest and Dunn Professor of Baptist Studies and Church History. On Tuesday, August 29, at the Divinity School's convocation, Bill's work will be honored and Lee will receive the inaugural Bill J. Leonard Distinguished Service Award. The following evening, they'll come our way. Join us for an introduction to or reunion with these dynamic ministers and scholars.

Children and youth will enjoy their own welcome back activities!

Wednesday, Sept. 6, A Knollwood Missions Fair – For all ages

Come see, hear, and touch some of the great ways Knollwood folks are involved in our community and our world. Maybe you'll find a new way you want to be involved.

Hands-on activities, engaging displays, and a look at Knollwood's missional principles and values will give a glimpse of how we're seeking to be the hands and feet of Jesus in our world: improving food access, investing in literacy and education, welcoming newcomers, protecting waterways, building homes, using needlecrafts to convey care, and much more...
