THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

THE OPENING SENTENCE Lucrecia Norman

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

“Gracious Spirit, Dwell with Me”..... arr. Richard Warner

Lauren Winkelman, organ

THE CHORAL INTROIT

“Amazing Grace”.....arr. Kirby Shaw

[Text may be followed at No. 502 in the hymnal.]

THE CALL TO WORSHIP..... Lucrecia Norman

One: Listening and knowing God, we enter this moment to seek You.

All: We seek Your comfort, Your guidance, and Your presence.

One: You offer Your loving arms, straining to close the distance.

All: Our yearning transforms to movement towards You.

One: Your voice beckons through the noise to guide us on our way.

All: Show us the sure footings on the path following You.

One: We long for your indescribable and undeniable presence.

All: Speak to us, listen to us, and simply be with us, O God. ~Josh Godwin

THE INVOCATION AND THE LORD’S PRAYER Lucrecia Norman

*THE PROCESSIONAL HYMN OF PRAISE, NO. 40

“Let the Whole Creation Cry”..... LLANFAIR

CONFESSING OUR NEED FOR FORGIVENESS

THE PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison) Diane Lipsett

In this holy moment we bring our whole selves before you, God: everything that is the beautiful image you instilled in us and everything that is the ugliness of our shortcomings. Forgive us for the times we are not honest with ourselves and you. Forgive us when we speak too quickly and our words of anger and hatred cause pain. Forgive us when we do not speak at all and our deafening silence allows others to suffer injustice. Teach us to speak with your voice. Show us the unexpected places to listen for your voice in our lives. ~Josh Godwin

THE SILENT CONFESSION

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

* Those who are able will stand.

† Ushers will seat those waiting.

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Curtis E. Long, and in recognition of their wedding anniversary (August 19) by his wife, Sara S. Long.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

In the Bible and in church tradition, the dove and fire symbolize the Holy Spirit. According to the four Gospels, the Spirit descended on Jesus like a dove at his baptism (Mark 1:10 and parallels). John the Baptist promised the Messiah would baptize with the Holy Spirit “and with fire” (Matthew 3:11; Luke 3:16). From Moses’ encounter with God by the burning bush (Exodus 3:1-6) to the tongues of fire at Pentecost (Acts 2:1-4), fire is a sign of God’s riveting, transforming presence. The Pentecost banner depicts the fire of God’s challenge and the dove of God’s gentle loving care. The artist who designed and painted the Pentecost banner is our own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Building B. Children’s Worship resumes August 27 for 1st through 3rd graders. It meets on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays of the month Children’s worship bags, activity bulletins and sermon notes are available in the narthex.

Wednesday, Aug. 30, Dr. J. Lee Hill and Dr. Bill J. Leonard in Conversation: The Spiritual and the Social

Two vibrant leaders, friends to Knollwood, will join us to reflect on church and culture, ministry and service, race and justice, generational change, and what a difference a decade makes. Lee Hill is Senior Pastor at Christian Fellowship Congregational Church (United Church of Christ) in San Diego. From 2004-06 he served as Knollwood’s youth minister before moving to Riverside Church in New York City. Bill Leonard is founding dean of the School of Divinity at Wake Forest and Dunn Professor of Baptist Studies and Church History. On Tuesday, Aug. 29, at the Divinity School’s convocation, Bill’s work will be honored and Lee will receive the inaugural Bill J. Leonard Distinguished Service Award. The following evening, they’ll come our way. Join us for an introduction to or reunion with these dynamic ministers and scholars.

Kids Connect (6:15-7:00)

Our children will enjoy a taco meal together as we catch up and reconnect after summer break. We’ll share celebrations and concerns and some silly Table Talk questions while we eat and visit. After the meal, we will move the chapel for some fun games that will build friendships, encourage cooperation and teamwork, and help us create a welcoming atmosphere for the new year together. Make Wednesday nights a part of your family’s school year routine!

Wednesday, Sept. 6, A Knollwood Missions Fair – For all ages

Come see, hear, and touch some of the great ways Knollwood folks are involved in our community and our world. Maybe you’ll find a new way you want to be involved.

Hands-on activities, engaging displays, and a look at Knollwood’s missional principles and values will give a glimpse of how we’re seeking to be the hands and feet of Jesus in our world: improving food access, investing in literacy and education, welcoming newcomers, protecting waterways, building homes, using needlecrafts to convey care, and much more...
