THE TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
THANKSGIVING SUNDAY

Sunday, November 19, 2017 • 10:55 AM

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless;
to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes;
to all who want rest, peace, and happiness — this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

THE ANTHEM

“O Come, Let Us Sing unto the Lord” Emma Lou Diemer

The Chancel Choir

O come, let us sing unto the Lord; let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation. Let us come before God’s presence with thanksgiving; and show ourselves glad in God with psalms. For the Lord is a great God; and a great King above all gods. In God’s hand are all the corners of the earth; and the strength of the hills is God’s also. The sea is God’s and God made it; God’s hands prepared the dry land. O come, let us worship and fall down and come, let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker. For God is the Lord our God; and we are the people of God’s pasture, and the sheep of God’s hand. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness; let the whole earth stand in awe of God. For God cometh to judge the earth; and with righteousness to judge the world, and the peoples with God’s truth.
~from Psalms 95 and 96

KBC WELCOMING STATEMENT

Knollwood Baptist Church is an inviting, inclusive family of faith open to all persons, whatever their race, gender, socioeconomic status, special needs, or sexual orientation, who want to walk in the way of Jesus.

ABOUT OUR WORSHIP

We welcome and express appreciation to guest musicians Steve Shelton, Jan Strohl, Chris Williams, and Steve Ware.

Today’s Call to Worship and Litany of Thanksgiving and Dedication were written by Knollwood member Peggy Haymes.

The bags of food at the altar are Knollwood’s annual ingathering of non-perishable grocery items benefiting Crisis Control. If you would like to make a special offering to alleviate hunger, simply note “World Hunger Offering” on a donation check and drop it in the offering plate or by the church office.

These funds are divided and distributed through two channels:

Locally: Samaritan Ministries provides the only seven-day-a-week soup kitchen within Forsyth County, providing hot meals to people of all ages, genders, and races. In addition, Samaritan Ministries operates a year-round shelter for single men, serving the hungry and homeless.

Internationally: Baptist World Aid is funded through the Baptist World Alliance. Receipts for “World Hunger” are allocated equally to alleviate the immediate needs of hungry people and to reduce the likelihood of future hunger problems through approved development projects.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

“The way” is a familiar biblical theme encompassing such truths as “the way of the Lord” (Isaiah 40:3), Jesus as “the way” (John 14:6), and “the way” as a description of Christian discipleship (Acts 9:2). The words on the banner point to the movements of faith: Longing for God that impels us forward in the spiritual journey; Learning the way of the Scriptures and the way of Jesus; Loving as our love for God and our neighbors deepens; and Living as we live out of Christian faith and witness in the world.

The colors of the banner emphasize green for “ordinary time,” the period in the church year between Pentecost and Advent. The artist who designed and painted the banners is our own Bambi Setzer.

VOLUNTEERS REQUESTED: MEALS ON WHEELS

Want to give a gift that keeps on giving? I have just the idea for you! Knollwood's Meals on Wheels team badly needs some new recruits. I've been delinquent in getting the word out, but would like for you to seriously consider picking up one of our three Wednesday vacancies. We need drivers for the first, third, and fourth Wednesdays.

Knollwood's MOW's team services the Winston-Salem Foundation Route, which is very easy. At the present time we only have between nine or ten recipients (six of whom are residents of an independent living facility on Lansing Drive). Delivery time only takes about an hour and a half from pick-up to return of coolers to Senior Services. I will expectantly await your volunteer acceptance call — 336-766-4139. Thank you in advance. ~Betty Lanning
