at Worship

THE SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Sunday, January 14, 2018 • 10:55 AM

*To those who feel the need of light; to those who find doubts and fears in their hearts;
to those who need courage for their daily tasks; to those who feel lonely and friendless;
to those who wish to give service; to all who, in faith, will support and involve themselves to the limit of their ability in the work of the Kingdom of God which this church undertakes;
to all who want rest, peace, and happiness — this church invites you to the fellowship of Jesus.*

KNOLLWOOD AT WORSHIP

GATHERING FOR WORSHIP

Please silence all electronic devices. Thank you!

THE CHIMES

Three chimes are sounded, awakening us to the presence of God, alerting us to the voice of Christ, centering us in the embrace of the Spirit. As we gather, we present ourselves “as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is our spiritual worship.”

THE OPENING SENTENCE ..... Diane Lipsett

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

†THE PRELUDE

“In Heavenly Love Abiding” ..... arr. Mark Sedio

Lauren Winkelman, organ

THE CHORAL INTROIT

“Let Justice Flow Like Streams” ..... Aaron Williams

The Chancel Choir

*Let justice flow like streams of sparkling water, pure,
Enabling growth, refreshing life, abundant, cleansing, sure.
Let righteousness roll on as others' cares we heed,
An ever-flowing stream of faith translated into deed.*

THE CALL TO WORSHIP ..... Diane Lipsett

One: In the busyness of our lives, Sabbath sometimes seems wasteful.

All: God bids us, “Come and see.”

One: In our skepticism and doubts, worship sometimes feels false.

All: Jesus bids us, “Come and see.”

One: In our failures and weakness, communion sometimes feels undeserved.

All: The Spirit bids us, “Come and see.”

One: In our distractions and obligations, following Jesus sometimes seems impossible.

All: This community of followers bids us, “Come and see.”

One: Yes! God invites us now to Sabbath, to worship, to communion, and to fellowship!

All: As we come, may we see God's goodness!

As we come, may we see ourselves, and this world, in the light of God's goodness!

~Mary Hix

The Prayer of Confession

Merciful One, we confess that as we come to Your table, we often forget Your love's precious price. We forget that we have been bought with a price, and that we belong to You. We pride ourselves as being rugged individuals, free agents, masters of our fate, and captains of our soul. Forgive us for our willful amnesia of whose we are. Forgive us for our self-righteous pride. In Your love, draw us together now, in circles of fellowship around the bread and the cup. Open our eyes to see You, ourselves, and this world, in the light of Jesus' priceless gift.

~Mary Hix

The Words of Institution

Sharing the Bread and the Cup

This morning, we will serve one another Communion as brothers and sisters in the family of God. Please use the center aisle to approach the table at the front of the section where you are seated. Once a circle of worshipers forms around the table, the minister will offer the first person the bread of Communion and say, "The love of God for you." That person then passes the bread to the next person in the circle and says, "The love of God for you," and so on. As the bread is being passed, the minister will offer the chalice to the first person served and say, "The peace of Christ for you." That person will dip his or her bread in the chalice and take Communion. He or she will then hold the chalice for the next person in the circle and say, "The peace of Christ for you," and so on. Gluten-free wafers are available for those who need them.

Please remain standing at the table until everyone is served, then return to your seat by the outside aisle by the wall.

(If you prefer to have Communion served at your seat, please indicate with a raised hand and a deacon will assist you.)

FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Dr. David Beavers and Mrs. Betty Beavers by their children, David Jr., Philip, Janet, Gail, Judy, and Bill.

The white rose on the altar is given by Knollwood Baptist Church in memory of Ray Snell. It is a symbol of the love and esteem in which this community of faith held him.

BENEVOLENCE OFFERING

On Communion Sunday, a benevolence offering is taken to help with benevolent needs in the Knollwood family and wider community. Ushers will be in the narthex following worship to receive donations.

ABOUT OUR BANNERS

"The way" is a familiar biblical theme encompassing such truths as "the way of the Lord" (Isaiah 40:3), Jesus as "the way" (John 14:6), and "the way" as a description of Christian discipleship (Acts 9:2). The words on the banner point to the movements of faith: Longing for God that impels us forward in the spiritual journey; Learning the way of the Scriptures and the way of Jesus; Loving as our love for God and our neighbors deepens; and Living as we live out of Christian faith and witness in the world.

The colors of the banner emphasize green for "ordinary time," the period in the church year between Pentecost and Advent. The artist who designed and painted the banners is our own Bambi Setzer.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Worship Care is provided for children, infant - kindergarten aged on the first floor of Bldg. B. Children's Worship for 1st through 3rd graders meet on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays.
